March 2, 2009

United States Attorney Joe W. Stecher and the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement announce the following information for the attention of the media:

Event Triggering this Release:

J.S. Beverland, 56, was sentenced for receiving child pornography. The Honorable Laurie Smith Camp sentenced Beverland to sixty months of imprisonment. After his release from prison, Beverland will begin a five-year term of supervised release.

Immigration and Customs Enforcement conducted a national investigation into commercial child pornography websites. One of the websites identified was "Home Collection." The site charged a monthly subscription fee of $80- $100. Beverland was identified as a subscriber.

On July 28, 2008, agents of the Nebraska Office of Immigration and Customs Enforcement arrested Beverland at his home. Beverland allowed the agents to review his computer. After viewing images of child pornography, the computer was seized. A full forensic analysis revealed 108 images of child pornography including a number of previously identified children.
